

CAREERS IN ART

ARTTALK CHAPTER 14 REVIEW

TWO-DIMENSIONAL ART CAREERS

- ☀ Advertising designers - create logos, or symbols or trademarks that signify that company.
- ☀ Cartoonists - a person who produces distinctive, entertaining drawings meant to provoke thought and laughter for publication in magazines and newspapers.
- ☀ Fine artist - a artist who works independently as a painter, sculptor, printmaker or jeweler.
- ☀ Graphic designers - a person who translates ideas into images and arranges them in a appealing and memorable way.
- ☀ Illustrators - create the visual images to go along and complement written words.

THREE-DIMENSIONAL ART CAREERS

- ☀ Architects - design buildings that are well constructed, aesthetically pleasing and functional.
- ☀ Fashion designers - design and create clothing, hats, shoes, etc.
- ☀ Film, television & theater - various careers from acting, directing, set or stage design, make-up artists, hairstylists and costume design.
- ☀ Industrial designers - a person who plans the designs for products in industry, such as - appliances, furniture, cars, packages, toys, etc.
- ☀ Interior designers - a person who plans the design and decoration of the interior spaces in homes and offices.

TECHNOLOGICAL MEDIA

- ☀ Photographers & Digital imaging - skilled artists who use cameras and computer software to create and provide pictures for books, magazines, and newspapers and other means.
- ☀ Computer animators - artists who create moving cartoons for movies, television and the Internet.
- ☀ Special effects artist - artists who have the ability to imagine and create fantasy scenes or imaginary creatures look real.
- ☀ Web designers - artists design the individual pages that make up a web site, which may include text; photos; graphics; sound and animation.
- ☀ Video game designer - develop, plan and create all aspects of computer, and video game design from the background to figures.